ORDER

It appears to the court that everything possible should be done in this case to reduce costs in order to maximize the funds available to the injured workers. Therefore, it is ORDERED:

1. That the Clerk and Master shall add a Certificate of Service to orders, including this Order, which states "I certify that a copy of the foregoing Order has been sent to all persons on the Master List for service" and such shall go to all persons set forth on Certificate of Service attached to the Order on the Respondents' liability for the bonds, which the Order is also being filed and served this date;
2. That the Master List shall be used only for pleadings and Orders affecting the entire overall case such as the Final Order on the bond issues, the ultimate allocation of the bond monies among the claimants;

3. That Certificate of Service for Orders and all other matters involving claims, because such are not "pleadings," shall be limited to (a) the claimant or the claimant's attorney; (b) Joseph R. White, the receiver; and (c) Cris Cain of Collins & Co.;
4. That any person who has an objection to the terms of the three paragraphs above must file an objection with the Clerk and Master, Room 300, Hamilton County Courthouse, Chattanooga, Tennessee, 37402, within twenty (20) days of the filing of this order setting forth the objection and the relief requested;
5. That any person who is willing to be removed from the Master Certificate of Service List or who feels that he/she should be added to the Certificate of Service for the individual claims shall advise the Clerk and Master by letter within twenty (20) days from the filing of this Order;
6. That, due to the preeminence of Federal Law, the fact that all claims for workers' compensation benefits must be filed in this court, as a result of the Bankruptcy Court Order filed January 11, 2001 and the payment of all such claims for workers' compensation benefits are limited to payment from the bond funds paid into the Clerk and Master of this court, all claims for workers' compensation benefits, including reconsideration rights under T.C.A. §50-6-241, must be filed by claim with the Clerk and Master of this court on or before 4:00 p.m. on April 19, 2002;

7. That the future filings in this cause shall list the style of this case as:
